

Business Valuation Resources, LLC joins the IVSC to advance the valuation profession worldwide

June 26, 2019, Portland, OR: Business Valuation Resources, LLC (BVR) has been appointed a member of the International Valuation Standards Council (IVSC), the global not-for-profit organisation responsible for setting International Valuation Standards (IVS) and developing the valuation profession worldwide.

As a member of the IVSC, BVR will work with leading valuation organisations throughout the world to strengthen the body of knowledge and to ensure international standards enhance the reliability and transparency of valuation data.

The IVSC is working to align international best practices in valuation and by doing so support business and protect financial markets for the public good.

“The IVSC and its members share a belief that raising standards of international valuation practice benefits business and the wider public interest. Consistent standards improve transparency and stability of financial markets, contribute to the growth of stronger economies and lead to improved confidence for all users of valuation data.” Sir David Tweedie, Chair of the IVSC Board of Trustees

“BVR is proud to join the IVSC community of worldwide valuation leaders. We are especially eager to contribute to the expansion of best practices, data sets and other valuation resources – and to help grow an already impressive and intimate network of practitioners in every specialty and country” – David Foster, CEO, BVR. Lucretia Lyons, BVR President, adds: “As an IVSC member, BVR is now even more committed to playing an active role in the remarkable ongoing success of global valuation initiatives.”
